Pensée de la journée :

La plus belle parole après le verbe AIMER, c'est le verbe AIDER.

G. Charest

Pensée de la semaine :

Être assez rayonnants pour que les âmes viennent à nous, et assez effacés pour qu'elles ne s'attachent pas et nous dépassent.

As you may have already heard, Kendrick Beler will be ordained in St. Joseph Parish in North Battleford, on July 11, at 7:00pm. As a way of showing our solidarity with him we are asking all parishes to provide a spiritual bouquet. People often ask, what does a new priest need the most? Invariably, the answer is: Money, Books, Vestments or one of the latest electronic gadgets. But what he really needs is prayer - for it is the prayer of the people that will sustain him throughout his priesthood. To this end, we are asking every parish to create a spiritual bouquet that can be part of an offering to Kendrick at his Ordination. Some may be asking, "What is a Spiritual Bouquet?" Spiritual Bouquets are prayers or devotional acts that someone (the giver) has or will offer for someone else (the recipient). The idea is that each prayer is like a flower, and combined prayers are a bouquet offered to the individual. It can be given from an individual or a parish to express joy and/or best wishes. The Vocations Commission suggests that a large card be made from heavy paper, perhaps with a bouquet of flowers on it, with perhaps a scripture verse. Along the sides should be the signatures of those pledging, along with the action they are pledging: be it a Rosary, Holy Hour, Days of Fasting, Act of Charity, Special Novenas, or any other spiritual action. It is our hope that Kendrick will keep these bouquets close to his heart for the rest of his life.

Vocation Corner ~ Sixth Sunday of Easter

A Vocation View: God's love for us has been revealed: "Love one another as I have loved you. The world is in need to see people who are striving to love others with all their hearts. What about you?"

Prayer: For all those chosen by the Lord to go and bear fruit as priests, deacons and in the consecrated life, that they will respond to His love with conviction in their vocations, we pray to the Lord.

Action: DID YOU KNOW that there are special seminaries for men entering the priesthood later in life, seminaries where students range from ages 25 to 60? Many of these men have thought about being a priest at one time or another but, for whatever reason, pushed the idea to the back of their minds. They're ordinary people, men who have been electricians, teachers, barbers, policemen, social workers, businessmen, farmers, dentists. Some are widowers, even grandfathers. Diverse though their backgrounds may be, they now share one aim in life: to become a priest and serve God's people. Could you be one of them?

Amis pour de vrai Les vrais amis sont rares. On a bien des camarades, des collègues de travail, des voisins, des connaissances.

Mais des amis profonds, fidèles et discrets, attentifs, respectueux, soutenant, cela est bien rare. Aujourd'hui les gens se font des amis par centaines via Twitter, Facebook, ou autre réseau Internet. Mais il suffit d'un rien pour que cette pseudo-amitié se change en haine ou en mépris. Tant de jeunes en sortent démolis.

Quand Jésus parle d'amitié, il s'agit d'autre chose. Jusqu'à maintenant, il a été le chef, le maître et les apôtres n'étaient que des disciples. Maintenant qu'il sent venir la fin, son discours change de ton. Je ne vous appelle plus serviteurs car le serviteur ignore ce que veut faire son maître; maintenant je vous appelle mes amis (Jn 15,15). L'amitié dont il parle est l'amitié totale qui suppose la confiance, la réciprocité, l'amour. Jésus n'a pas peur de parler d'amour au sens le plus parfait du terme. Cet amour que Jésus veut partager, il origine du cœur de Dieu, du Père. Le Père donne son amour au Fils et le Fils nous partage son amour. Nous entrons alors dans le mystère même de Dieu, car Dieu est amour. Il y a ici un véritable circuit d'amour qui va du Père au Fils, du Fils Jésus à nous et de nous aux autres pour retourner à Dieu. Aimons-nous les uns les autres puisque l'amour vient de Dieu. Celui qui aime est né de Dieu et connaît Dieu » (1 Jn 4,7).

Difficile d'aller plus loin. Dieu, on le vénère, on le craint; à la rigueur, on lui obéit. Jésus parle d'autre chose : de proximité, d'intimité, d'amitié, d'amour. C'est en aimant qu'on découvre le mystère de Dieu.
