Vocation Corner Twenty – eighth Sunday of the Year – B

A Vocation View: If we really believe in something, it does not seem to be a sacrifice to give up everything else to pursue that one dream. Jesus asks for total dedication, promising in return rewards that no one else can promise: "Go and sell everything you own ... then come; follow me."

Prayer: That those chosen to leave all and follow Jesus more closely in the priesthood or consecrated life will respond with the wisdom and understanding given by the Holy Spirit, we pray to the Lord.

Action: Invited to leave everything to follow Christ, you, consecrated men and women, no longer define your life by family, by profession, or by earthly interests, and you choose the Lord as your only identifying mark. Thus you acquire a new family identity. Homily of Pope John Paul II, Jubilee of Consecrated Life, February 2, 2000

The Bishop's Annual Appeal will commence this weekend October 13 & 14, 2018. It is time for us to do what we can to support the programs and ministries that benefit both our parish and the wider community. For example, the children's catechetics program Finding God, youth and young adult events and retreats, and programs such as the Forming Intentional Disciples initiative. Your gift and your prayers will help to make this year's appeal a success. Our parish is asked to raise $5801.00 this year for the appeal. Every contribution counts. We can do this if, after thoughtful consideration and prayer, every one of us gives according to our ability.

Following Christ's Lead

The passage from St. Mark's Gospel that we read in today's liturgy is one of the most intriguing. A young man asks Jesus what he must do to inherit eternal life. Jesus asked him if he kept the Ten Commandments, the Decalogue. He responded: Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth". St. Mark records that Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, "You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." The young man did not have the courage to follow Jesus because he had great wealth.

The moral interpretation of this text is well known. It is about the attachment to wealth that impedes our hearts and prevents us from making bold choices. No one is completely free of financial concerns because they often determine our chances of survival in a money-based society.

However, Jesus' words address much more than the question of money. The text says that Jesus looked at him and loved him. For the young man, who was a potential disciple, this could have been the beginning of an intense, personal relationship with Christ. The young man replied that he already respected the Ten Commandments. Jesus, God's Word, invited him to go further. However the young man was not able to make that choice and commit to Christ.

Many people keep the Ten Commandments. Choosing to leave their wealth behind and following Christ is the next step.
