PRO LIFE FRUIT CAKES...Our fruit cakes have been a very popular fundraiser, so we are counting on everyone's support yet again. The cakes will again be at a price of $25, which is very reasonable thanks to the generosity of Pastry World in Yorkton who are only charging us for the ingredients: donating their time and facility. They plan to have these cakes ready for delivery by the end of September. NOTE: it works well to cut up the cake into serving sized pieces that freeze well in zip loc bags in appropriate portions. They also make a very tasty gift. We want to wind up this project ASAP so please talk to Maxine Baskey to reserve your cakes ASAP. Thank you in advance for supporting the Pro Life cause: respecting life from conception to natural death. God's blessings...

Fund Raiser: Proceeds for new hymnals – Hand crocheted afghan donated by Marty Panchyshyn. Tickets are for sale $2.00 each or 3 for $5.00, to be drawn in November 2018. Thank you Marty.

Vocation Corner Twenty – fifth Sunday of the Year – B

A Vocation View: When Jesus says, "If you wish to rank first, you must be last one of all and the servant of all," many people could immediately turn and walk away. Are you willing to serve as Jesus did?

Prayer: For all those who welcome the call of the Lord to serve Him as priests deacons, and in the consecrated life, will be strengthened in their vocations as servants of all, we pray to the Lord.

Action: Dear brothers and sisters, in the finest traditions of the Church in this country, may you also be the first friend of the poor, the homeless, the stranger, the sick and all who suffer. Act as beacons of hope, casting the light of Christ upon the world, and encouraging young people to discover the beauty of a life given completely to the Lord and his Church. Pope Benedict XVI, Mass at St. Patrick's Cathedral, 2008

We are called upon to help turn our country back towards God and to protect life, marriage and the family. On October 7th, the feast of Our Lady of the Rosary, nations around the world will be united in praying the rosary simultaneously for the intention of their own nation and the world. This is being called the Coast to Coast Rosary. It is said that Mary is humankind's greatest intercessor, so we need to call on her at this time to bring light to our world. If possible 3:00 is the targeted time in our Time Zone to be praying in unison universally, but if another time works better, then that's all good, too. Let's work together to storm heaven!!

Thank you to everyone who helped to make our fall supper a blessed success.

Vulnerability

When Jesus spoke of welcoming a child, he was not suggesting that we glorify our younger days. Childhood is a beautiful time of life - provided we grow up. Jesus was referring to something infinitely more profound and serious. He acknowledged the realities of the society of his era and proposed a real revolution in relationships. Jesus spoke of becoming a servant, then of welcoming a child, which in that time was a complete about-face. In fact, Jesus used a play on words that we cannot translate directly into English. Jesus spoke Aramaic and there is a play on the words: servant and child. The same Aramaic word is used for both.

In Jesus' culture, servants and children had no voice. They did not make any decisions or were ever asked their opinions. They were considered fragile in body and mind. In Jesus' era, they survived by being completely self-less and dependent on others.

In this context, welcoming a child meant attaching importance and giving consideration to someone whom society regarded as negligible. Welcoming a child in Jesus' name meant welcoming a vulnerable human being. If this was done in His name, it meant welcoming Jesus and also God who sent his Son. Almighty God encounters us when we welcome these vulnerable beings. What a paradox! This sensational reversal of perspectives can occur in our own lives. Jesus teaches us that relationships that count in God's eyes are not just those that help us climb up the social ladder. Those that matter contribute to maintaining and paying attention to life.

Jesus' teaching proposes that we imitate him and become humble like a vulnerable servant or child. What are we waiting for? This practical advice is central to our faith and is the root of Jesus' unique message of salvation. It focuses on our problems with relationships: in our communities, in our own families and with our earth. Our actions will not necessarily require us to complicate our current obligations but perhaps undertake new ones when we choose to live as Christ's followers and companions. Mindful of our own circumstances, we can still be open to other points of view and different ways of looking at people and situations. Seeing through God's eyes, we are open to change.

We can understand the disciples' confusion when Christ spoke of these societal reversals as He continues to interrupt our lives and hopefully transform them.
